French Army Wants 10,000 Western Horses Gleichen, October 22nd

As announced in last issue the French horse commission will be in Gleichen tomorrow—Friday, Oct. 22nd, to purchase horses. The banker, Manager Cameron of the Bank of Commerce received the following telegram:

"Kindly try to induce everyone who has horses to sell to have them in Gleichen on Friday as the French Inspectors are to return to Toronto next Wednesday on account of not getting enough horses from ranchers. Will appreciate it very much if you and others will assist in securing as many as possible. Am. JAMESON."

It is stated the French commission are anxious to invest $1,300,000 in about 10,000 horses in Alberta and if they meet with success here will later establish permanent headquarters for the winter. The French Commission however, is not so finicky as the British. It knows exactly what it wants and will take it. It wants horses which are five years old and over, calvary horses which weight from 950 to 1100 pounds which are halter broken and which are 15 hands and over. They don't give a hang if a horse is so bad it would give a professional hawking horse rider the time of his life. In Medicine Hat it is related they took a wild eyed pony that threw the rider and then the saddle after him. Little things like that don't count. "Wait until we get across the ocean" says Commander Corbett, who with Dr. Case are doing the buying. "It may not be so frisky."

Artillery horses will be taken if offered, but smaller horses are preferred, hence the French commission desire materially from those that have gone before.

A Serious Accident

Sunday afternoon Messrs. Bowen and Goodwin witnessed a very shocking accident. They were walking near the elevators when a freight train started out and they saw C. Baranek, one of the section men from Bartlow, who had come down to visit his Gleichen friends, attempt to board a coal car about three or four cars from the engine. The train was going fast and he and while he caught on with his hands his legs seemed to get crossed in some way and he fell, with the result that his hand was severed between the wrist and the fingers. One leg was cut off above the ankle and the other foot badly crushed, leaving the small toes and side of the foot at once summoned Dr. Rose, who accompanied him to a Calgary hospital, but it is reported that it is not likely that the unfortunate man will recover.

The eye witnesses of the accident state that he was a very hard shod man to look upon as the hand and foot were held on only by the cords although they were bleeding very little.

The authorities have asked for a complete list of all the men who have enlisted from Gleichen with all the particulars available. All are asked to supply the names of those they have to Peter MacLean, town secretary. Next week we will publish the list as complete as we can obtain it.

Majorville News

(Our own correspondent)

Too late for last issue—E.L. Mr. Golick who had been some what indisposed last week is around again.

Threshing operations have been some retarded by the broken weather, consequently there is a large percentage of the crop to thresh yet.

Miss Larkin's second trip to Majorville seems to have been full of thrilling incidents very easy to relate. She slid into town quite gracefully (Frank Scott on the wheel) not exceeding the speed limit as far as we could see, but on the return trip what didn't happen as she has already said, is more difficult to remember than what did. Automobile troubles seem to have figured largely. However, they managed to get to town next day or the day after. Until the gentleman who when they started to walk it ought to follow, O! you naughty "tough" too!

Thanksgiving day passed by quietly. I rather forget the day until that winsome "halloa girl" gently hinted that I might cut the messages short as she was invited to a turkey dinner and she had a turkey supper in prospect, consequently the turkeys are still at large, but Christmas is coming.

War may rage in other places, the price of wheat may rise or fall, but the matrimonial wave has struck Majorville and promises to sweep in its vortex most of the eligible applicants. The latest contracting parties were Miss Nellie Ash and Mr. E. Smallbone who were quietly married at Bassano on Monday last week. Both parties are well and favorably known in our midst and we join in wishing them all the happiness coincident with the married life.

Mr. A. Marchessault of Farham, Que., was a passenger by the "Gleichen Limited" last week. He entered partnership with Mr. O. McIntosh, the cattleman. They have secured the Taylor lease, near the Burns house, and they will raise horses to numerous to mention.

Most loving people have a treat in store for this seasons entertainment. The Kipling Opera Company will present the play "How He Spilt His Beans" for any further particulars consult the bill boards. "Put on Your Old Gaiters" and etc.

Order your Xmas and New Year greeting cards at the Call office. A fine selection to choose from.

Last Friday evening the Musical Ecclesiastical produced one of the best entertainments ever given here, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. The dance which followed was thoroughly enjoyed.

170,591 BU. GRAIN RECEIVED

The weather the past week has been almost ideal for threshing operations, there being no rain or snow to hinder, although south snow delayed work a few hours on Friday morning. Operations were more steady than any week since the season opened.

The past week 33 carloads of grain have been shipped from Gleichen, making a total for the season of 85 cars. This is seven more cars than were shipped the week previous.

During the week the elevators have taken in 33,620 bushels of wheat and 11,097 of oats, making a total of 44,717, and for the season 170,591. The week's intake is only 529 more of wheat than the previous week and 2,947 less of oats. The prospects are that the coming week will be a record-breaker.

The Queenstown Items 820d Obtained Eight Recruits in Gleichen

(From our own correspondent)

On Tuesday evening, October 20th, the date of the big auction in the center to elevate the grain into the bins, the Farmers Union will meet at the Pioneer School. Mr. James Speakman, president of the United Farmers of Alberta and one of the grand old men in the farmers movement will speak. All Queenstown farmers should attend. After the meeting there will be supper followed by a dance so there should be something good for all.

John L. Ash has built a very up-to-date granary on his place. It is a double granary with an elevator in the center to elevate the grain into the bins. A gasoline engine drives the elevator.

Earl Mills threshed a 40 acre field of volunteer wheat that yielded 25 bushels per acre. That's getting good deal for nothing.

Seventy-nine bushels of wheat to the acre is the latest report. Should threshing continue all winter no doubt someone will claim 100 bushels to the acre.

Elmer Petersen has sold his threshing rig to B. Plante.

A few weeks ago I sent a letter to the Chicago Daily News about Alberta's big grain crop, harvest problems, etc., also mentioning some of the big yields. The letter was published straight but the yields carefully left out. It looks like some of the American papers are afraid that their readers will find out what a great grain country we have up here on this side of the fence.

Most of the threebushmen have adopted a new way of doing things this year. They move onto a man's place, fill all his granaries, then go to the next and return when the first one has either hauled out the wheat or built more granaries.

Practically every Queenstown farmer was unprepared for the big yields and it keeps him guessing to find room for it.

Bostonians Coming Wednesday, Oct. 27

Famous Girl Organization to Appear Here Again

Theatre-goers of Gleichen will be delighted with the good news that the Famous Bostonians will be seen at the Opera House on Wednesday to the much talked about "Tippity Mary". For the past twelve years this company which is made up entirely of young ladies has appeared here and has always succeeded in amusing us with clean and excellent presentations. This season the Bostonian girls, under the direction of "Mother" Lang—for they all call her "Mother" in this large family—and managed by Mr. B. E. Lang as usual, will present a fascinating musical play, "Tippity Mary". The dancing, new songs, ready wit, topical comments and scenery painted from sketches made in old Tippity it will all blend into two hours of rare entertainment.

In Calgary, Edmonton and wherever the Bostonians have presented this offering both boys and girls have been enthusiastic in their endorsement of this as possibly the best offering since Old Ireland has ever been conjured in Canada. It is really something worth your while.

Miss Billie O'Neill as "Mary" will be seen in the best of her roles and in the same part of this ripping musical play this little vivacious lass is said to utterly route the last semblance of "work-a-day world worries". Supporting Miss O'Neill will be other Bostonian favorites. Patrice Henry, Dixie White, Marie Hill, Jim Mitchell, Thome Hellen, Lolo Fox, M. J. Gardner, Lila Duffy and other jolly members of this all-girl company.

"Tippity Mary" has played in New York and the east—in Calgary and Edmonton and if that may be a crying shame our Gleichen folks may expect one of the rarest treats of the season when the Bostonians come on Wednesday for one day only.

It would now seem that the big departmental stores that are trying to crush the life out of the country merchants by the mail-order route have not all the ray side and that after all the little fellows, who plug plugging away at fair profits and helping their customers during hard times are really all so simple-minded as some would have us believe. From London, Eng. comes the dispatch: "The Procyon (Canada) company has decided to go into voluntary liquidation and has called a meeting of creditors. The resolution states that by reason of its liabilities the company cannot longer continue business." Wonder how many of the company's mail-order friends, who saved so much by patronizing it will show up to help Pryon jump out of the difficulty?

A RECIPROCITY ECHO HEARD ABOVE WAR DIN

Canadian Correspondent of Boston
Paper Returns to Old Theme—
Speaks of "Protected Graters"

The Boston "Transcript" recently contained an article by Mr. E. W. Thomson, their Canadian correspondent, which revived the arguments in favor of reciprocity between Canada and United States, and stated that the reasons for the adoption of a trade agreement would be more compelling after the war than before.

The "Transcript" views the other day dealt with Mr. Thomson's arguments as follows:—
During the discussion in 1911 Mr. Thomson filed The Transcript with extravagant insinuation of the reciprocity at trade proposals. He became violent whenever protection was mentioned. The determination of Canada to make other arrangements than those approved by Mr. Thomson, who regarded himself as a sort of Consulting Physician, appointed to watch over the body politic, stirred him to vituperation.

He began by declaring that a higher tariff was expected by the "crafting manufacturers here" and that they would be disappointed. The need for cheap manufactured goods would arise after the war and these would not be secured "from our protected graters." Mr. Thomson is the course of his argument (which is a poor thing, but his own), indicated that the tariff increases compelled by the war were demanded by the manufacturers. He said, in his polished manner: "These men impudently clamored for and obtained from the American Government 1 1/2 per cent. more graft last winter. They persist in maintaining prices as high as the tariff permits. They have disguised the general public by so evading the war measure in wartime; by having that patriotism requires Canadians to buy 'Made-in-Canada' junk, etc., etc."

Thirty years ago, perhaps, some "Made-in-Canada" goods were junk. No man of experience says that today. Mr. Thomson will not get far in the demand for Canadianism by reviling Canadian factories and Canadian workmen and by undertaking a campaign of studied fabrication. Our relations with the United States have always been complicated by the activities of foolish individuals. The anti-imperialist argument was placed before the American people incessantly during the campaign of 1911 by a corps of correspondents, attached more or less loosely to the liberal party. Of these few results to give tongue. But Mr. Thomson cannot so misrepresent the people of Canada. He assumes that our elections are the private property of the manufacturers, petalors of a band of robber-barons.

LOST AND STRAYED

During the Small Year 1914 something like $1,000,000 worth of rubber goods, including tires of all kinds, balloons, fire hoses and other rubber products were imported into Canada. The buying abroad of this great amount of rubber goods is something of a self-deception. The rubber goods industry in Canada has reached a state of excellence that no other country can surpass. There is no more need for a Canadian to purchase rubber goods of the kind indicated above in a foreign country than there is to buy foreign wheat, both commodities are produced in Canada, equal in quality to anything produced elsewhere. Next time you are in market for something in rubber goods see to it that you buy the products of any one of Canada's down stream factories. The greater part of the money you spend will be turned over by the manufacturer to his employees in the form of wages that will be spent by them, and through various channels find its way back to you. Keep wheel of commerce turning on rubber tires "Made-in-Canada."

FRIENDSHIP, NOT HATRED

One of the most important events of the past year was the sympathetic understanding which was reached between farmers and manufacturers. In discussing this, Canadian Farm, a weekly agricultural journal published in Toronto, says:—
"The farmer" is not inherently antagonistic to the manufacturing interests. While the basic industry in Canada is agriculture, the one is largely the complement of the other. The farmer is dependent upon the manufacturer for a large share of the equipment necessary to successfully carry on his farming operation. On the other hand, the business of the manufacturer could make little progress without a prosperous farming community and increased production from the land.

"The relations between the farmer and the manufacturer, instead of being antagonistic, should be of the most friendly character. To bring about more friendly relations and greater co-operative effort there must be give and take on both sides."

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Capt. Richardson in conversation stated that on his farm, six miles southeast of town, 350 acres has threshed 12,000 bushels of wheat and 30 acres of oats got 8,500 bushels.

It is stated that Frank Lebeaux has threshed 5,000 bushels of wheat off 90 acres on his farm northeast of town. This averaging 55 1/2 bushels to the acre. Something to be proud of Frank.

C. A. Millie, whose farm is only half a mile north of town, states that from 15 acres of winter fallow his wheat averaged 60 bushels to the acre and the rest of his wheat ran 47 bushels to the acre.

In the list of men from Gleichen who went with the 12th Mounted published in the CALL were omitted Corp. E. Wagtail and Pte. Albi Michie, who were among the first to enlist in that battalion. If there are others the CALL would be most pleased to learn of them from their friends.

Wayne McEwen writes his mother from Regina that he has harvested an average of 46 bushels of wheat off 22 acres, of oats 106 bushels off 20 acres and 27 bushels of flax off 35 acres. His Gleichen friends will be pleased to hear of his prosperity. He also reports that a neighbor has 55 bushels to the acre.

It isn't for a rainy day, but for many cold ones that many people are now preparing. Hence it is that the cold man is found unusually busy.

In Memoriam

Rosie Desjardine is dead. The word flew over town as on wings of the wind on Friday morning that she had passed away and wherever it touched it left sorrow and the expression of sympathy for the bereaved ones were many and from the heart.

Bright happy and cheerful, Rosie carried sunshine with her wherever she went. She had always been a pleasant word for her friends. Death came as a dark shadow to friends and to her relatives who loved her so dearly.

Death is a hard master, he would take from us of our brightest and best, but he cannot even mar memory. It will serve as a balm to our wounded hearts.

About two weeks previous she was taken to Calgary and there operated on for appendicitis and appeared to be recovering nicely, but on Sunday previous was reported not so well and her mother was sent for, arriving the following day but from then on her condition was critical and she finally passed away Thursday night.

Rosie was only thirteen years of age being the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Desjardine, and naturally had become a great companion to her mother, friends frequently remarking that neither were ever seen on the streets without the other—they were quite inseparable.

At 10 o'clock Saturday morning services were conducted in St. Victor's church by Rev. Father Simin, assisted by Rev. Father Leveaux, from where a long procession of relatives and friends followed the remains of the little girl to her resting place in the Catholic cemetery where the last sad rites were performed by the reverend fathers. Among the beautiful floral offerings were:

Spray, Edie and Myrtle Crockett, Spray, Mrs. Brosseau and Mrs. Renaud, Weas, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard, Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Plant, Cross, Felix and Mrs. Desjardine, Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Desjardine, Cross, Mrs. and Mrs. Ramsay, Weas, Mr. and Mrs. O. Desjardine.

THE GLEICHEN CALL

As the threshers leave each farm good reports come in. So will it continue.

The school has been closed for a week, owing to a case of diptheria, which is said to be of a very light character.

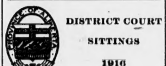

C. F. Bruce is preparing for a big auction sale, where he believes to join his old regiment in England.

Not one question in a thousand is considered on it merits in print, writers want the best of it, and knowing they are writing for real persons who also want the best of it, read in exaggeration.

Tomorrow is like the postman: there are so many good things the postman may bring, but usually he brings nothing except a few bills, a few one-cent envelopes, and a complaint or two.

Interested In Strawberry Discussion

Editor CALL:— I have been much interested in the letters lately appearing in the CALL in reference to growing strawberries, and I would like to draw the attention of your readers to the very instructive bulletin issued by Dominion Experimental Farm on Strawberry culture. A post card with name and address of sender, to the Experimental Farm at Ottawa, will procure it and as this fruit requires selection as well as cultivation it should be a great help to those just beginning. Yours truly, OLD TIMER.

SITTINGS of the District Court and the District Judge's Criminal Court will be held within the Judicial District of Calgary on the dates and at the places following during the year 1915:
